July's Wine Case Staff Reviews, Cheers!

Selected Whites

Pine Ridge Chenin/Viognier 2008, California

The 2008 Chenin Blanc-Viognier flaunts lush aromas of ruby grapefruit, pear, lychee and melon, with a delicate touch of spicy, white florals. Lively citrus and bright tropical fruit flavors are offered up alongside a supple texture. The slightly off-dry finish is clean and crisp, perfect with many dishes or on its own as an aperitif.

Zenato Pinot Grigio 2009, Italy

Straw yellow in color with greenish highlights, and a delicate bouquet. This is a wine to be enjoyed young when one can best appreciate its zesty fruitiness. Refreshing and soft with a smooth, dry finish, this versatile Pinot Grigio is a great choice for any occasion, but ideal with hors d'ouvres, soups and fish. A blockbuster!

Albet I Noya Bianco 2008, Spain

An exciting Spanish white made from two classic grapes (Chardonnay & Sauvignon Blanc) which have been grown on old vines and show more complex and concentrated fruit character. The first sip is vibrant with lemony and green apple notes, followed by creaminess on the mid-palate and a dry, grapey finish. Impressive richness and ripeness with balancing oak. A must try!

Selected Reds

Venta Morales Tempranillo '09, Spain

Full bodied on the palate, this red has rich and savory flavors of black cherry and raspberry along with hints of tobacco, chocolate and green herbs. Plenty of hearty Tempranillo flavors, coupled with a good balance of tannins and acidity, make this wine a great match for summer grilled foods like beef, pork and caramelized vegetables.

Brusset Cotes du Rhone '09, France

Black cherry, blackberry, & oak make up the bouquet in this lovely red. The palate is bright with rich cherry flavors followed by blackberry notes and a black pepper spice on the finish. A delicious summer red, that will complement your grill meats beautiful. From burgers to chicken and bbq ribs, this red fits the bill.

Pepperwood Malbec, Argentina

From the first sip, this wine is a lush Malbec, with balanced fruit and a deep charred nuance. Wild strawberry, fresh fig, and sweet date all come through, dancing the line between sweet and savory, with a light herbal note reminiscent of marjoram. The finish is long, with hints of well integrated French oak and fresh dates. Greek food, such as lamb kebobs, dolmas, or gyros, would match particularly well with the dark fruit and sweet herbal flavors in this Malbec. For an adventurous pairing, try Chinese mushu pork.
